BAPPENAS EMBRACES NATIONAL WOMEN'S CONFERENCE FOR DEVELOPMENT PLANNING

The Ministry of Women's Empowerment and Child Protection and the Ministry of National Development Planning (Bappenas) welcomed input to the government of Indonesia's development planning process from INKLUSI Partners – 'AISYIYAH, Yayasan BaKTI, Institut KAPAL Perempuan, Kemitraan, Migrant CARE, PEKKA, Perkumpulan Keluarga Berencana

Indonesia (PKBI), and Sasana Inklusi, and Gerakan Advokasi Difabel (SIGAB) through the National Women's Conference for Development Planning on the 17th of April, 2023. The objective of the conference is to ensure that the participation and voices of marginalised women genuinely influence the development planning process. Hence, every program can be tailored to meet specific needs, target the right areas, and benefit the lives of women and other marginalised groups. TIWUL CAHAYA: ECONOMIC RESILIENCE FOR FORMER MIGRANT WORKERS IN TANGGULANGIN VILLAGE

A group of former migrant workers known as SERBUMI, which is assisted by INKLUSI Partner Migrant CARE in the village of Tanggulangin, Kebumen, Central Java, has become a beacon of hope for their community with their livelihoods initiative called "Tiwul Cahaya". Since 2016, Migrant CARE has been implementing the DESBUMI program (Village that Cares for Migrant Workers) in Tanggulangin Village. The SERBUMI groups, composed of mostly return female Indonesian Migrant Workers (PMI) and their families, focuses on organising former PMI to strengthen the group's livelihoods by utilising local resources. Unlock the full story here bit.ly/TiwulCahaya2

"Before FORDISMA, we, as people with disabilities, felt submerged, and now we dare to come to the surface. There's no more discrimination or differentiation between disabled and non-disabled individuals, and our existence is more acknowledged." - Fatma, one of FORDISMA leaders.

"Since I joined Sekolah Perempuan, I have the courage to have a discussion with the government. Initially, I was afraid, but now I am confident in advocating for our rights here." - Aisyah, member of Sekolah Perempuan.

KNOWLEDGE PRODUCTS MITRA INKLUSI

Yayasan BaKTI in collaboration with the Makassar Independent Journalists Alliance (AJI) developed the Journalists' Guide on Writing with Gender, Disability, and Social Inclusion Perspective. Hopefully, this guide could serve as a reference for journalists in writing articles to reduce stigma and stereotypes against women, children, people with disabilities, marginalised groups, and vulnerable individuals. Also, contribute to positive journalism that supports advocacy efforts to realise the rights of these groups.

INKLUSI
Australia - Indonesia Partnership
Towards an Inclusive Society

The Australia-Indonesia Partnership Towards an Inclusive Society, or INKLUSI, is working to increase the participation of marginalised groups in, and their benefit from, Indonesia's socio-cultural, economic and political development. INKLUSI works with government and civil society partners to advance their work in gender equality, the rights of persons with disabilities and social inclusion. INKLUSI supports the Government of Indonesia's agenda for inclusion, including through national development plans and the Sustainable Development Goals. INKLUSI is an 8-year (2021 - 2029), up to AUD 120 million Australian Government program. It is partnering with 11 Indonesian civil society organisations, 8 research partner institutions and their networks across 32 provinces, 129 districts and 650 villages in Indonesia.
